

SENATE BILL No. 92

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 20-12-22.3.

Synopsis: Scholarships for academic honors. Establishes the Indiana honors diploma higher education award as a scholarship program for persons domiciled in Indiana who: (1) graduate from a public or private high school with an Indiana honors diploma; and (2) attend a public or private nonprofit institution of higher learning in Indiana on a full-time or part-time basis. Provides eligible students with a scholarship award in an amount (subject to the availability of appropriations) equal to 50% of the educational costs at public universities in Indiana, less an adjustment for money awarded to the student under other state higher education award programs. Provides for administration of the program by the state student assistance commission. Appropriates from the state general fund a sufficient amount to provide honors diploma higher education awards.

Effective: July 1, 2001.

includes:

- (1) a nursing diploma program that is accredited by the Indiana state board of nursing and operated by a hospital; or
- (2) a technical certificate or associate degree program at Ivy Tech State College.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "award" refers to an Indiana honors diploma higher education award under this chapter.

Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, "commission" refers to the state student assistance commission established by IC 20-12-21-4.

Sec. 7. As used in this chapter, "educational costs" has the meaning set forth in IC 20-12-21-3(6).

Sec. 8. As used in this chapter, "fund" refers to the Indiana honors diploma scholarship fund established by this chapter.

Sec. 9. The Indiana honors diploma higher education award program is established to provide monetary awards under this chapter.

Sec. 10. The commission shall administer this chapter. The powers of the commission under IC 20-12-21 apply to the administration of this chapter, including the power to deny awards under IC 20-12-21-7.6.

Sec. 11. The commission shall issue an initial award to each qualified applicant for an award.

Sec. 12. An applicant qualifies for an initial award under this chapter by meeting the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant is domiciled in Indiana, as defined by the commission.
- (2) The applicant:
 - (A) holds an Indiana academic honors diploma; or
 - (B) is a student in good standing who is engaged in a program that:
 - (i) will be completed by the end of the current academic year; and
 - (ii) will result in the applicant receiving an Indiana academic honors diploma.
- (3) The applicant will use the award to attend an approved institution of higher learning in Indiana.

Sec. 13. (a) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated for the purpose of awards under this chapter, the amount of an initial or renewal award is as follows:

- (1) For a qualifying student who attends an approved institution of higher learning operated by the state of Indiana, fifty percent (50%) of the educational costs for undergraduates charged by the institution for the academic year or equivalent for which the award is made, less any money awarded to the student for the following:

(A) A higher education award under IC 20-12-21.

(B) A freedom of choice grant established by IC 20-12-21-15.

(C) A hoosier scholar award established by IC 20-12-21-20.

(D) A minority or special education teacher scholarship under IC 20-12-21.7.

(E) A nursing scholarship under IC 20-12-21.9.

(2) For a qualifying student who attends an approved institution of higher learning that is operated as a nonprofit institution, the average amount determined under subdivision (1) to attend a state operated institution of higher learning other than Ivy Tech State College, less any money awarded to the student under a program listed in subdivision (1).

(b) If money is not available to provide the full award as established under subsection (a), the commission shall reduce the award to an amount within the available money.

Sec. 14. (a) A person who qualifies for an award is entitled to an award for the equivalent of a total of eight (8) semesters or twelve (12) quarters of postsecondary school education. However, eligibility does not extend more than ten (10) years after the beginning of the academic year for which an initial award is granted.

(b) To maintain eligibility, an award recipient is not required to:

(1) attend an institution of higher learning; or

(2) receive an award;

in consecutive semesters or quarters or on a full-time basis.

(c) An award may be renewed only upon application and only upon the commission's finding of the following:

(1) The applicant is domiciled in Indiana, as defined by the commission.

(2) The applicant will use the award to attend an approved institution of higher learning in Indiana.

(3) The applicant has successfully completed an academic year at an approved institution of higher learning in Indiana during which the applicant maintained:

(A) a passing grade point average in the applicant's first academic year; or

(B) a "C" grade point average or the equivalent in each year after the applicant's first academic year.

1 (4) The applicant is in compliance with subsection (a).

2 Sec. 15. (a) The auditor of state shall create a separate and
3 segregated Indiana honors diploma scholarship fund. All money
4 disbursed from the fund shall be in accordance with the provisions
5 of this chapter.

6 (b) Money remaining in the fund at the end of any state fiscal
7 year does not revert to the state general fund but remains available
8 to be used for making higher education awards under this chapter.

9 SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001] (a) There is
10 appropriated to the state student assistance commission an amount
11 sufficient to provide Indiana honors diploma higher education
12 awards under IC 20-12-22.3, as added by this act, from the state
13 general fund beginning July 1, 2001, and ending June 30, 2003.

14 (b) This SECTION expires July 1, 2003.
